

Victor Chorobik, Creative Director

With APA for over 30 years, Victor has led the creative development of dozens of projects worldwide. He has always been able to involve the client throughout the creative process, communicating the project's vision and development through superb sketches and thorough presentations. Victor holds an MFA in Industrial Design and Visual Communications, and is respected for his artistic talent and ability to create inspired, multisensory exhibit environments. His passion and expertise lie in combining audiovisual techniques with art and conventional exhibit media to create immersive experiences that transport visitors to another place and time. Victor's adept use of multimedia has resulted in the creation of innovative and award-winning exhibits.
